Learning outcomes [Description of the overall and specific objectives] [Knowledge, skills and competences to be developed by students]	Considering the need for correct and fluent use of the English language by the future professional, it is intended to give a global perspective of the world market, providing linguistic and communicative skills that will allow the insertion and intervention in the European social and labor environment. Three types of objectives are considered: theoretical, practical, and methodological. 1. Theoretical objectives: consolidation of the main structures and functions of the English Language as well as the study of grammar and development of the four basic language skills: written comprehension and oral comprehension, written expression and oral expression (Reading, comprehension, writing and speaking,). 2. Practical objectives: development of theoretical knowledge and its application: (i) linguistic understanding, (ii) linguistic production (speaking and writing). 3. Methodological objectives: active participation of students in the classroom and development of their critical thinking and autonomy involved in the learning process. At the end of the course, the student must have completed the B1.2 level of the QECRL.
